

STATEMENT BY J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR
OF SOUTH CAROLINA, FOR PUBLICATION IN SPECIAL EDITION OF "THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER" TO BE ENTITLED "THE CHARLOTTE STORY." PREPARED
SEPTEMBER 23, 1949.

The fine spirit of friendship and cooperation between the people of the two Carolinas is a matter of pride to all of us. In fostering and maintaining this attitude of good will and good fellowship, the people of Charlotte have always been gracious and hospitable neighbors.

Here in South Carolina we shall always have a friendly feeling for the proud old city of Charlotte, her institutions, traditions, and progressive accomplishments.
